

Working at our Global Service Delivery Centers

Discover more about opportunities with our dedicated Global Service Delivery Centers.

Apply Now

A key priority for Willis Towers Watson is to operate where our clients are, and to at all times to provide them with responsive, around-the-clock service. Through our numerous Global Service Delivery Centers, Willis Towers Watson's back office operations are expertly managed and optimized from regional and global shared service hubs. This ensures that our key Client Relationship Directors are able to dedicate their time wholly to client service, while thousands of colleagues on our efficient, highly skilled service teams provide critical, specific support functions from centers all over the world.

Our major service centers include locations in:

- China
- India
- Philippines
- United Kingdom
- United States